Anthony Tamburri

The Society is pleased to honor Nina, Aaron and Anthony for their many social and civic accomplishments.

Nina Pane Sanseverino has entertained the Italian-American community in the New Haven area with Neapolitan Music for over 70 years. She began singing with her mother Giuseppina Pane since she was three years old. She sang with many of Italy's finest performers.

Her signature song is "Mamma" in honor of her mother.

Aaron Caruso, famous tenor, has performed for many events in the New Haven area and has played many lead roles including a show about Mario Lanza on Broadway. He has performed twice at Carnegie Hall. Among his many other accomplishments, he is the musical director of the Bellini Opera Foundation.

Anthony Julian Tamburri was born and raised in Stamford, Connecticut. Anthony is the Dean of the John D. Calandra Italian American Institute of Queens College, CUNY. He is Professor of Italian and Italian/American Studies. He has written over eighty articles and book chapters plus eleven books, the majority of which promote Italian language and culture.

Please join us to thank these wonderful people for their contributions to the Italian community.
